

Brian W. Reichert, MCSE

Objective

To obtain a position administrating or assisting in the administration of a local area network utilizing my experience in LAN/WAN technologies, network operating systems, and hardware.

Technical Skills

NT 4.0, Win2000, Win 98, Win 95, DOS, Linux, WinXP, Office XP / 2000 / 2003, Project 2000 / 2003, Visio 2000 / 2003, Acrobat 6 / 7, Veritas Backup Exec, Symantec Ghost, Symantec Antivirus Corporate Edition, SMS 2.0, Active Directory, TCP/IP, DNS, DHCP, PC Hardware, Windows 2003 Server, Microsoft Exchange

Employment

2003-Present Inova Technologies Whitehall, PA

Information Technology Engineer

- Troubleshoot and maintain Windows NT and Windows 2000 Workstations
- Manage Data Backup/Recovery
- Troubleshoot and maintain Windows Servers
- Perform major server upgrades
- Install and Administer Microsoft Exchange 2003
- Install and Administer Windows Terminal Services on both 2000 and 2003 servers

2000 – 2003 IQE Inc (Formerly QED Inc.) Bethlehem, PA

Information Technology Engineer

- Troubleshoot and maintained Windows NT and Windows 2000 Workstations
- Managed the Data Backup/Recovery System
- Assisted in the maintenance of several Windows NT and Windows 2000 Servers, switch stacks, and general LAN infrastructure including Windows 2000 Active Directory
- Evaluated and recommended new products
- Developed and maintained a customized unattended installation of Windows 2000 Professional resulting in reduced system deployment times
- Administered the System Management Server 2.0 (SMS) site server including the creation, testing, and deployment of software packages and updates
- Maintained Software License compliance through periodic software audits
- Worked as the primary liaison between the IT Department and the Production Facility ensuring that IT activities did not disrupt production

1995 – 2000 QED Inc. Bethlehem, PA

V100 Molecular Beam Epitaxy Technician II

- Controlled and monitored the growth of thin film alloy layers on Gallium Arsenide substrates for use in high frequency applications
- Worked with five team members in the maintenance/repair of the Molecular Beam Epitaxy reactor
- Assisted in LAN and PC troubleshooting and maintenance
- Planned and implemented company-wide PC anti-virus protection

1992 - 1995 Britech Inc Allentown, PA

Cable Assembly Technician/Supervisor

- Supervised five technicians
- Assisted in the installation of COAX and UTP wiring schemes for use in local area networks
- Constructed cable assemblies and harnesses according to customer specification

Education

Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer - Windows NT 4.0 & Windows 2000 with electives in Security Design and SMS 2.0

Northampton Community College
Network Administration Diploma

Bethlehem, PA

Lincoln Technical Institute Allentown, PA
Associate Degree in Electronics Technologies

Awards received

1989 Boy Scouts of America – Eagle Scout